

Randolph Youth Theater Company & The City of Asheboro Present
Adventures in Theatre
“Robin Hood” Summer Camp

ABOUT THE CAMP: The Adventures in Theatre Summer Camp Experience is designed to involve young actors in all aspects of theatre production. Working with local professional directors, music directors, choreographers, costumers, and scenic artists the campers will learn basic theatre skills, how to audition, stage movement and character development. After two weeks of theatre games, workshops, a few dance classes and some serious rehearsing, campers will be ready to show their hard work with a complete production including sets, costumes, lights and props on the Sunset Theatre Stage. (ages 8-18)

ABOUT THE PLAY: Robin Hood is the most courageous and misunderstood outlaw in literature. We know that he stole from the rich and gave to the poor and was the best archer in the land. But did you know that he was also an excellent singer and dancer? Robin is forced into hiding by the Evil Prince John and “not-such-a-nice-guy” the Sherriff of Rottingham. In Sherwood Forest he is joined by a group of colorful characters. There is Little John, “Littler” John, Friar Chuck, Will, Scarlet, Rhett The Butler, Gilligan, the Skipper, Maid Maryann and the rest. This comic adaptation of the classic tales follows the adventures of Robin Hood, his Merry Men, Merry Women, and Merry Children on many merry adventures. Complete with knights and ladies, archery, revenge, the quest for justice and a lip-synching contest this play has something for all.
